
Ermitage Coteau des Seyes

A blend of three terroirs from the same area, on gneiss: Combe des Cloux, Raffort and Les Seyes. Altitude: 520 to 580 metres. Years of planting: 1968 and 1978.

Wine

It offers an exotic, truffle-like nose that reveals the grapes' high maturity without becoming heavy. The palate is full-bodied, with a surprising freshness that comes from the terroir. This is a wine of great proportions, suitable for ageing.

Wine-making

Vinification followed by ageing in muids, demi-muids and barrels for 10 to 18 months.
